

ATTENDANCE POLICY & AGREEMENT

Street School students need to maintain good attendance and be on time if they wish to be successful in our nationally recognized and award-winning program. Every student is responsible for her/his attendance. Consistent attendance and punctuality are very important for success in school. Parents must notify the school by 9:00 a.m. if their student is absent. Attendance is reported to the Education Service Center each day, and Tulsa Public Schools reports excessive absences to the District Attorney's office. There are no excused or unexcused absences.

If a student is not in attendance at Street School, they are considered absent. This includes absences for illnesses, family emergencies, funerals, court dates, doctor appointments, or anything that would prevent the student from attending school. This is why it is of utmost importance that each student attends school every day while preserving time for any of the above situations that might arise.

If a student is absent more than twenty hours in a session, he/she will no longer be able to attend Street School and will need to sit out the remainder of the session, with no credit given. However, the student will be welcome to return to the program at the start of the new proceeding session. Students will only be given one opportunity, per school year, to return to the program following a violation of the attendance policy.

A student who exceeds the absence limits for one class, but not the other, will continue coming to Street School only for the half day in which they are still in compliance. The absence limit in the morning classes is 10 hours and the absence limit in the afternoon classes is 10 hours each session. If a student exceeds the attendance requirements two sessions in a school year, they may be dropped from the program.

Students who are dropped from Street School always have the right to re-apply to the program the next school year.

I have read the above and agree to comply with the attendance policy
