Street School's Street Party Raises $335K

TULSA, Ok. –Street School's annual fundraiser held at the Cox Business Center's Assembly Hall on Friday, February 23, 2018 raised $335,000 in one night. A capacity crowd of more than 400 people were on hand to participate in the live auction, silent auction, raffle, wine pull and dancing to the music of Charlie Redd and the Full Flava Kings.

Money raised supports Street School which provides therapeutic counseling and educational support for at-risk students in grades 9 through 12 who want to overcome the odds and become high school graduates.

Event auctioneer Rick Miller and emcee Adam Paluka, a Street School Board member, were an energizing duo. A total of eight items were auctioned off that included trips to Ireland and Honduras and a RV getaway compliments of Bob Hurley RV.

Chair: Dana Weber, CEO, Webco Industries

Top Sponsors: AAON, the Canada Company, the Joseph and Virginia Dibert Foundation, Direct Energy, Ruth Kaiser Nelson Foundation, OMNI Air International, Opportune, QuikTrip, TMA Systems, Webco Industries, Williams and the Zarrow Families Foundation

Street School is committed to addressing the 23% of Oklahoma students that dropout of school every year between ninth and twelfth grades. Street School boasts a 90% graduation rate.
